proved a blessing to the afflicted, who show their gratitude by the most flattering testimonials. This medicine has established for itself a name that competitors, however wily their achemes or seductive their promises, cannot reach. It gained the public confidence by the immense benefits that have been derived from it, and will ever maintain its position.

Last Sunday, I was endeavoring to explain to one of my Sabbath school scholars, a boy of six or seven years of age, the manner in which the sinner, being clothed with the rightcourses of Christ, became accepted by God. "Now, Tim." and I, "what cclor is that wall?"

"White, sir," he replied.

"But look through these green spectacles, and what color does it appear?"

"But is the wall really green, or does it only seem so because you are looking through a green glass?"

"But is white, and only looks green from the spectacles."
